

WANT FIRE PUMP PLACED ON TUG

Aid of Administrative Board
Asked to Protect Water Front.

AINSLIE GETS FIRE ENGINE

Joynes Will Aid Water Department in Cleaning Water Mains.

Members of the Council from Clay and Lee wards protesting against the removal of the new hook and ladder truck No. 3 from the Fire Engine House at Lombardy and Broad Streets from their fight last night when the Board of Fire Commissioners directed that when the new motor truck that has been ordered for No. 1 Truck Company at Ninth and Broad Streets arrives, the present No. 1 truck be installed at No. 2 house at Nineteenth and Grace Streets and the present No. 2 truck, a big fifty foot truck, but with a somewhat old style ladder raising device, is to be placed in South Richmond, where a new Truck Company to be known as No. 3 is to be organized.

At the request of Mayor Ainslie the Board authorized the Chief Joynes to operate with the Water Department in cleaning mud out of water mains by the use of a fire engine.

Protect River Front.

The Board directed that a letter be sent to the Administrative Board asking that a fire pump be installed on the city tug for fire service on the water front. This has been recommended for years by the Board of Fire Commissioners, but has been steadily opposed by the employees of the James River Improvement Department.

Under new management, the Fire Department has hopes of a greater cooperation in the protection of the water front than it secured from a committee whose chief use of the city tug was to make pleasure excursions on the river.

The constantly increasing use of motor fire apparatus and its introduction into the Richmond Department brought up the question of giving firemen experience in running heavy motor trucks about the streets. It was decided that the Chief should attempt to arrange with merchants using large motor trucks to allow firemen to obtain experience in their use by driving such machines daily, as may be arranged with the owners.

Preparing Financial Statement.

A committee from the Fire Board was named to prepare a schedule of the needs of the Fire Department for 1913, and the Board will hold a special meeting to consider its report before it is submitted to the Council Finance Committee.

H. G. Galt was elected Fireman Grade C in Engine Company No. 12, vice C. F. Hagner, resigned. A. K. Davenport was placed on the eligible list.

Auditor Warren Injured by Fall

Prominent City Official Suffers
Compound Fracture of Right Leg.

Edward J. Warren, the octogenarian City Auditor, is in the Virginia Hospital as the result of a fall yesterday afternoon in the front of his home, 28 East Main Street. His right leg sustained a compound fracture just above the ankle, and he suffered great pain. On account of his age, eighty-five years, his physician, Dr. M. D. Hoge, Jr., expects the home while he sustains an obstinate and untiring and does not intend to allow the Auditor to use his injured limb for six or eight weeks.

As Mr. Warren was leaving his home yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock his foot slipped on the curbing of the street and he was thrown down with what to a man of his age was a serious shock. His right leg crumpled under the strain and he lay suffering in the street until pedestrians could rush to his aid. A heavy call was sent in for the city ambulance, and Dr. H. T. Hawkins responded, giving the Auditor temporary relief from the pain by the use of a morphine injection.

Another Domestic Tragedy.

Washington, January 13.—Thomas Stevens shot his wife in the abdomen, and Robert L. Thomas, a boarder in his home, in the face and was killed himself by Thomas here tonight. The latter is locked up Stevens' wife in the hospital. Stevens had threatened to order Thomas to leave his home returning from a three-day trip to Baltimore. Stevens found him still there and began firing, whereupon Thomas shot and killed him.

NEW HEAD MASTER INSTALLED.

E. W. Hardy Takes Up Duties at Park Union Military Academy. (Special to the Times-Dispatch.) E. W. Hardy, colored, a boarder in the home of South Carolina, has been installed as head master of the Park Union Military Academy, located at the corner of Broad and Grace Streets, and before Jefferson. The new head of the school is a graduate of the Furman University and the Chicago University.

Jefferson in custody and sent him to the Police Station.

Miss Wood took her niece into a nearby drug store, and an examination showed the child had not been seriously hurt.

MAY FACE LARCENY CHARGE

When Detective Sergeant Wren returns from Colquhoun with "Lord" Blake, it is probable that a charge of grand larceny will also be made against him. According to the latest report, the balance of the money from the "Lord" Blake case is $1,000.00.

Wife No. 3, whose identity so far has not been made public, has not yet been identified.

Wife No. 1, with her six children, will probably remain at Brandy, Va.

Begins Series of Sermons.

A booklet announcing the subjects of his "Human Interests" sermons for the next six weeks has been issued by Rev. Thomas Claggett Skinner, D. D., pastor of the Second Baptist Church. The first of the series, "The Individual Life," was preached last Sunday night.

The Balance are as follows:

January 13, "The Related Life," (man and man), January 14, "The Martial Life," (husband and wife), February 1, "The Parental Life," (father and child), February 8, "The Commercial Life," (the Christian and business), February 15, "The Probationary Life," (the Christian and State), February 22, "The Entertained Life," (the Christian and amusements).

Other Cases.

Other cases before Police Court were disposed of as follows: William King, colored, cruelty to a horse, $10 and costs. Clarence Williams, colored, assaulting John Harris, held for the grand jury. John Christian, colored, assaulting Leander Crawley, $25 and costs. Charles Brown, colored, fined $10 and costs for stabbing Henry Barnes. George Sutton, colored, appealed from a fine of $20 imposed for assaulting Mary Garrett.

DANIELS NAMED FOR CABINET POST

Indorsed by General Assembly for Portfolio of Postmaster-General.

(Special to the Times-Dispatch.) Raleigh, N. C., January 13.—J. Daniels, Democratic national committee man from North Carolina, to-day was indorsed by the General Assembly for the portfolio of Postmaster General in the Cabinet of President Wilson. Mr. Daniels' name has been prominently mentioned in connection with that position.

Special features of the General Assembly to-day were the introduction of a bill by Stubbins, of Martin County, for a constitutional convention, the proposition to be voted on in the 1914 general election, and the convention to have the same representative in delegates as the present House of Representatives.

Stewart, of Mecklenburg, introduced a bill to make having by college students a misdemeanor punishable by twelve months in prison, and another requiring mileage to be pulled on trains.

There was a joint resolution introduced by Kellum, of New Hanover, for the Corporation Commission to investigate the receiver's sale of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad, Wilmington to Mount Airy, and its division between the Atlantic Coast Line and the Southern, the investigation to be as to conspiracy to block competition in violation of the Sherman anti-trust act and the Attorney General to prosecute, if evidence of such conspiracy is shown.

The house received a bill introduced by Roberts, for a Western Carolina teacher training school, the bill carrying $25,000 appropriation, the locality that gets the institution to put up $5,000 more and the directors to be chosen from the Western Congressional districts.

The House Committee on Constitutional Amendments, Justice, chairman, discussed informally this evening the question of submitting to the General Assembly specific acts amending the constitution or calling a constitutional convention for the settlement of all of the matters before the people at this time. Possibly the committee may ask the House to confer upon it the power of initiating amendments by reports in form of bills. There will soon be a joint meeting with the Senate Committee on Constitutional Amendments with a view to determining the power of the Legislature had to transfer matters two years ago.

The Senate Committee of Federal Relations voted this afternoon to report favorably Senator Watts' bill to ratify the seventeenth amendment to the Federal Constitution for election of Senators by direct vote of the people. The recommendations by State Commissioner of Insurance James B. Young to the Legislature are awaited with considerable interest in view of the strenuous times the Legislature had to transfer matters two years ago.

However, indications are that these will not be ready for transmission to the Assembly through the Governor before the latter part of the week. The Department of Insurance has given very greatly and is an immense revenue raising institution for the State.

LARGE INCREASE IN BANK BUSINESS

State and National Banks in Virginia Show Big Gains for 1912—Statements of Bank Examiner and Comptroller of Currency.

State banks in Virginia showed a large increase in business during the year just closed, according to a statement issued yesterday by State Bank Examiner C. C. Barksdale. There was a gain of $4,081,580.57 in deposits in State banks alone, while national banks in the borders of Virginia gained $5,582,673.79 making a total increase of $9,664,254.36.

In surplus and profits the State banks gained $834,729.08; national banks $195,908.80; total, $1,030,637.88.

The total assets and total liabilities of the 254 State banks in Virginia increased more than $6,900,000 during the period between December 31, 1911, and November 26, 1912.

Appended is also a statement showing the financial condition of the 133 national banks in Virginia on November 26, 1912, which shows a large increase since December 31, 1911; and following that statement are shown the increases both in all State and in all national banks as to loans, deposits, capital, surplus and profits, and total assets, and also the combined increase in both State and national banks as to these items.

SCHNEIDER LOSES SUIT.

Does Not Recover for Injuries Caused by Dynamite Explosion.

A verdict for the defendant company was returned yesterday in Hustings Court, Part II, in the suit of Schneider against J. B. Chowning & Company. Twelve witnesses were heard in the afternoon and the case given to the jury after the noon recess.

Schneider was injured by a blast of dynamite set by employees of the defendant company. He contended that he was permitted to cross the dangerous ground. This was contradicted by four colored laborers, who swore that he had been warned to keep off. It was also shown that the defendants had always maintained a strict system of guards when using dynamite in excavating.

Smith & Gordon represented Schneider.

Deaf Mute Hit by Car.

To be struck by a street car thrown to the ground and rolled beneath the tender and yet escape without a scratch to show for the thrilling accident was the experience of a four-year-old child yesterday morning at Eleventh and Hull Streets. The boy, a deaf mute, is the son of Joseph Davidson, C. D. Brooking immediately applied the brakes and the car stopped within a few feet of the child's head. Wholly unharmed, he crawled out and attempted to board the car. Officer W. E. Waymack, who was a passenger, took the boy home and turned him over to his parents.

Disobey Court's Order.

Charged with disobeying an order of the court, Samuel C. Harris was arrested yesterday on the Northside and brought before Judge Ernest H. Wells in Hustings Court, Part II. Because another case was being tried, Harris was ordered held for a hearing this morning.

Harris is being sued for divorce. Pending the taking of depositions, he was ordered to pay a week to his wife for her support. This he has failed to do for several weeks. No reason was given by him for the court was given by him.

Verdict Not Conclusive.

Because of contradictory evidence the jury empaneled yesterday by Corner Taylor to investigate the death of Peola Woodridge, colored,
